Sals Turns Golf Breakfast Into Bridge Tourney

Tuesday's scheduled breakfast-golf for women of the Astoria Golf and Country club turned into a breakfast-bridge due to the stormy weather that crimped the golfers.

But inside the clubhouse, all was snug and warm and tables held springlike arrangements of lavender heather.

Eclectic prizes awarded for previous play were won by Mrs. Frank Maize, for low match and Mrs. Myrtle Lawson for low gross. Mrs. Don McPherson won the day's special prize.

Hostesses for the breakfast were Mrs. Jens Lerback, Mrs. Maize and Mrs. Lawson.

Winners for last week were Mrs. Lawson in class A; Mrs. Harry Clow in class B; and Mrs. Ralph Hendrickson in class C.

Next week's play, weather permitting, will be a hidden-hole tournament, for which Mrs. Curt Mosely and Mrs. Maize will be chairmen.

Country Club Has Big Family Night

The monthly family night held by the Astoria Golf and Country club on Saturday for the first time, proved successful, according to a spokesman, who stated there were 80 present.

The full course dinner was followed by bingo, and then a three piece orchestra furnished music for dancing.

Co-hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Neil Morfitt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Morse.

*The Women's PageSOCIAL & CLUB NEWS*Country Club Members Greet Lady of Letters, Comedy

A Lady of Letters was introduced to members of the Astoria Golf and Country club and their guests Friday evening in the club lounge.

The lady, in the person of Shirley Dean, was the central character, portrayed with charm and restraint, in a three-act comedy of the name, produced by the Blue Room players of the Portland Civic theater, under the direction of Dori Barsness.

Mrs. Barsness, daughter of a former Astorian, appeared here with her husband some time ago with the Virginia City players. She was co-director with Russ Hays of the Blue Room play.

The story is of a small town college professor's wife, whose determination to be included in the educational atmosphere of the family and nearby college, nearly brought about her downfall, with her husband and his associates.

Buying a manuscript from a penniless author, sending it to a publisher and having it hit the market as a best seller, brought about complexities that seemingly could only end in exposure and disgrace.

But the publicity and forthcoming money, both to her husband also desirous of being an author and to the financially embarrassed college, saved the situation, her good name and several ticks in the cast.

Miss Dean was supported by Maxine Mundt, Gordon Milbank, Delight Lorenz, Neldia Ackerman, Palmer Moore, Caroline Flink, Jean Steiner, William Boyer, Irlie White, Kenneth Clausnit-zer and Marcia Knoshe.

Curtain time for the play was set late purposely to allow fight fans to witness the middle-weight championship bout on TV, and, in spite of the blustery evening, a good crowd encircled the play, given in the round.

Several of the players were familiar as members of the cast of "Miranda" given last fall under the auspices of the Clatsop County Medical association auxiliary.

Women Golfers Postpone Meeting

The regular meeting of the women's auxiliary of the Astoria Golf and Country club has been postponed from next Tuesday to the following week.

This is due to the fact that the OWGA play at Waverly Golf and Country club in Portland is this coming Tuesday, and 15 women players from the local club are competing.

Qualifying for the spring bandicoot tournament will be April 13, for which Mrs. Creer Glasco and Mrs. William Manton will be co-chairmen. Players are asked to sign up as soon as possible.

Bridge Luncheon Has Nine Tables At Country Club

The April bridge luncheon held by women members of the As-toria Golf and Country club had nine tables in play on a sunny afternoon last week.

Easter decor marked the event, with branches of forsythia and wild currant, studded with daffodils massing the mantel, and bunny and chicken figurines centering each table.

Mrs. H. Hall won the afternoon's special prize, and winners at bridge were the Mesdames Gordon Sloan, Stanley Sagen and James Holmes.

Hostess were Mrs. Orval Eaton
and Mrs. Holmes.

Children Swarm Country Club for Easter Egg Hunt

One of the spots evidently included in the Easter bunny's cross-country hop was the Astoria Golf and Country club grounds, where 50 children and grandchildren of members scurried about gathering nests of eggs hidden in the shrubbery Sunday.

The event was preceded by an Easter breakfast, served to more than 100 at 12:30 p.m. in the diningroom, where tables held the usual array of chenille rabbits and chickens, and where a bright-hued Easter egg tree graced the mantel piece.

A veritable menagerie interested young and old alike in a pen of fluffy yellow chicks, another of ducklings, and another of twinkly-nosed baby bunnies.

Mrs. Allan Cellars was the chairman for the Easter party, assisted by Mrs. Fred Sandoz and Mrs. E. T. Edison.

Mrs. Fred Sandoz
646 Eleventh Street
Astoria, Oregon

Dear Mrs. Sandoz:

Mrs. Cheney and I have had a busy season teaching in Portland and San Francisco all during the winter. Now that summer is rolling around, we were wondering if the Astoria Country Club will want another series and if so, our open dates will be preferable to start Friday, June 18th.

I have been told to write you by Peggy Hawkins. She has informed me that you are the President of the Women's Auxiliary.

We have always enjoyed teaching at Astoria and always had good crowds. We would naturally expect to see a good promotion and we would hope to have at least 35 couples to make it successful as far as we are concerned.

We are leaving today for San Francisco where we are going to teach a series of six weeks in the Bay Area. My address down there is 1101 Green Street, Apartment 304, San Francisco, California.

Please give your husband, Fred, my best regards and also Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sandoz.

Very truly yours,

Ed Cheney (ah)
ED CHENEY

P.S. The series down at Astoria would be six Fridays, $15.00 per couple, the same as in the past. I would like to hear from you as soon as possible. I am also writing to Lynn Fowler.

P.P.S. Do you think your husband and I would make a good tap dance team?

could get 25 or more promise 35. Dates are

Dear Mrs. Sandy:

I received your letter recently, and was very pleased to learn that the dates and the promotion at the Astoria Country Club is set and underway.

I'm very glad to know that you and Ford might be able to join us this year.

Our classes are going extremely good here. Mrs. Cheney and I have moved here closer to our work as most of our classes are

Original Table Decor Adds Color to Country Club Tea

One of the most interesting and colorful teas to be given this season was the one at which women of the Astoria golf and Country club were hostesses Friday afternoon.

Women members had set up in the main lounge 12 tables, with appointments and decor in tune with each month of the year.

The January table, done by Mrs. Orval Eaton and Mrs. E. J. Hall, featured a brimming watch night punch bowl, with Happy New Year decorations. February's table, the work of Mrs. Graham Barbey and Mrs. Blair Henningsgaard, featured a cherry red cloth, pink tapers and china and a cherry tree, whose dark red fruit was tied with pink bows.

Mrs. Marshall Leathers had her exquisite Beleek eggshell china on pale green Irish linen with dyed green floral centerpiece and tapers for March, and April's table, set by Mrs. Clayton Morse and Mrs. Neil Morfitt, was for a trout brunch, with yellow pottery on a trout brown cloth, and fishermen figurines in a setting of yellow water lilies.

Mrs. J. D. Hendrickson's May table had a maypole whose satin ribbons were held by dainty story book dolls, and June's wedding reception, arranged by Mrs. Jack Witliff, had a ruffled skirted cloth of white, pink satin ribbons and candles, and a Dresden bride figurine under glass surrounded by a bank of Cecile Brunner rosebuds and lily-of-the-valley, the china rose sprigged to match.

Mrs. Ed Niemi and Mrs. Bob McDonald's July table carried out the Fourth of July theme in a flag fashioned of red and white hawthorne, firecracker favors and bright candles. August's setting was old blue and white Swedish pottery on a red damask cloth, the plates rimmed with fresh red strawberries, by Mrs. Robert Thrall and Mrs. Joseph Dyer.

Mrs. James Cellars and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Allen Cellars, furnished a conversation piece of dried summer grasses and big clusters of grapes on a bamboo matting-covered table, which featured a cedar jug and mugs, pretzels, a heaping bowl of watermelon slices and a string of brass bells.

Mrs. R. C. Paulsen's October table held miniature witches and a flaming witches' cauldron, a brace of tall black candles and orange and yellow marigolds. November's table was centered with a towering tiered centerpiece of lush fall fruits for a harvest dinner, the work of Mrs. Kark Parker and Mrs. G. F. Erbe.

December's festive board was red and white, with satin streamers on a white linen cloth, nosegays of holly and bright red Christmas candles, set by Mrs. Wendel Wyatt and Mrs. John McGowan.

Added interest for the afternoon was in the program, which featured Miss Jeanne Maddox, who introduced two of her dance pupils, Julie Hoare, in a dainty toe dance, and Barbara Bozanich, in an authentic Hula number.

Miss Jean Sauer, accompanied by Miss Charlotte Anderson, sang "One Alone" and "The Desert Song;" Mrs. Floyd Foster sang "Toujour L'Amour" and "Luxembourg Garden," and Mrs. James Hope's vocal solos were "Still Unexpressed" and "Morning" by Carrie Jacobs Bond. Both were accompanied by Dorothy Stone Kinney.

"The Undecided Four," a girls' quartette from Knappa, Nancy Johnson, Sharon Olp, Judy Wogberg and Marcia Royal, sang "Down by the Riverside," "A Man" and "I Get So Lonely."

The refreshment table for the tea hour was covered with a dainty pink organdy cloth, with massive floral piece of deep pink roses, snapdragons and carnations and tall, twisted pink tapers. Mrs. Vernon Fowler, Mrs. Frank Rafferty and Mrs. Fred Sandoz poured, and assisting about the rooms were Miss Sharon Rafferty and Miss Carole Hendrickson.

Mrs. Robert Larson was responsible for the decor throughout the clubhouse, which featured a conversation piece representing the four seasons in flowers over the mantel and sprays of white lilacs and black candles about the rooms.

Mrs. Edward Thompson and Mrs. C. P. Leicht were in charge of the tea table appointments, and Mrs. Lief Erickson had charge of the program.

CLASS A WOMEN GOLFERS ASSIGNED TO QUALIFY

The Astoria Golf and Country club announced today that the Astoria Golf and Country club will hold a nine-hole iron tournament Tuesday, June 4, at the Astoria Golf and Country club. The winners of the tournament will be assigned to the class A women's golf tournament.

IRONS USED BY WOMEN IN GOLF TOURNAMENT

Mrs. Ed Holmes (class A); Mrs. Carl Nyquist (class B) and Mrs. Richard Hole (class C) were winners in the Tuesday nine-hole iron tournament played by women of the Astoria Golf and Country club. Next week's play will be a putting tournament.

WINNERS ARE ANNOUNCED IN PUTTING TOURNAMENT

Mrs. Ed Holmes was class A winner in the putting tournament held for women of the Astoria Golf and Country club Tuesday on the club course. Mrs. Jack Chandler won in class B and Mrs. Don McPherson in class C. Next week's play will be a draw day, with odd over even. Mrs. Frank Gillard and Mrs. Sherman Lovell are chairmen.

Golf Lessons Set at Course, Caperna Says

Free golf lessons for all children, from fourth graders up to and including high school seniors, will get under way Friday, June 4, at Astoria Golf and Country club, it was announced today by the club and by Ron Caperna, club pro, who will conduct the classes.

Student golfers are to assemble Friday at 10:30 a.m. at the club course.

The lessons are open to all interested juniors, whether they are the children of members or non-members of the club, according to Mrs. T. R. Williams and Mrs. Mervyn Edward, chairmen of the committee in charge of the event.

Weekly competition will be held, with prizes for each week's winners, and there will be a championship tournament at the season's close.

"This is a fine opportunity for all youngsters who want to learn to play golf," said Mrs. Williams, "and the club hopes to get even more students than the 30 who had a successful season last year."

Children may either bring their own clubs or rent clubs from Caperna at the course.

Dot Burgess Wins Golf Championship

Mrs. Lloyd Burgess added another win to her long list of golf victories Tuesday by defeating Mrs. Tom Sandoz, four and three, in the final play for championship of the women's spring handicap at the Astoria Golf and Country club.

Mrs. Curt Mosley, a newcomer in tournament play, won her right to compete with first flight winners with comparative ease. She defeated Mrs. Lawson on the 17th hole in the final play to win the first flight.

In the second flight, Mrs. William Manion was winner and Mrs. Allen Cellars runner-up.

Mrs. Clyde Lee won from Mrs. Floyd Foster in final play for third flight.

Prizes for the tournament will be awarded at the monthly meeting of the women's auxiliary, June 15 at 3 p. m., instead of June 8, previously announced.

June 8 is informal guest day when green fees for guest players will be waived.

Women Golfers To Start Class

Members of Ron Caperna's beginners class for women golfers at the Astoria Golf and Country club are asked to meet at the clubhouse Tuesday at 9:15 a. m. to organize a beginner's club.

This is to continue golf play and competition throughout the summer, now that the class has completed its instruction.

A team captain will be elected, along with helpers to manage group activities. Mrs. Clayton Morse, team captain for the regular golf group, will assist in the organization in the absence of the golf advisor, Mrs. Lloyd Burgess.

Mrs. Howard Hedrick will act as chairman for the beginners until a team captain is elected.

Players are asked to record scores on any nine holes they play in the next three weeks, for the purpose of determining handicaps.

New Golfers Elect At Country Club

Mrs. Howard Hedrick was elected team captain for beginning golfers at their meeting Tuesday at the Astoria Golf and Country club.

Beginners will establish handicaps during a three-weeks period, after which they will play a nine-hole tournament. Mrs. Hedrick won the blind-hole competition Tuesday. A prize will be given this Tuesday for the longest drive on the 18th hole.

Trophies for winners of spring handicaps and eclectic competition will be awarded at the monthly meeting of the Country club auxiliary Tuesday at 3 p. m. Players are urged to make three-somes for the day's play to avoid tardiness at meetings.

Junior Golfers Elect Officers

In their first action of the year Astoria Country club's junior golfers elected officers and laid plans for their season which will get underway at 10 a. m. Friday with lessons at the club.

Gilbert Gramson was named president for the group. Gramson's aides elected by the club include Pat Lucas, vice-president; Linda Williams, secretary-treasurer; Gary Glascoe, boy's team captain; Stuart Holmes, assistant captain; Pat Ewart, girl's team captain and Carole Hendrickson, publicity.

Fingerling team captain also named by the group will be Linda Fowler.

NIECE FROM PORTLAND TO TRY FOR LOW PUTT

Beginning on Monday, the Astoria Golf and Country club will play Tuesday at 9:30 a. m. for low putt award. Bernice Tolfelson won the prize for the longest drive on the 18th hole last Tuesday.

GOLFERS FROM 3 CLUBS TO PLAY TOURNAMENT

Twenty-six women golfers from Neahkahnie and Tillamook's Alderbrook Golf clubs will arrive at the Astoria Golf and Country club Tuesday at 9:15 a. m. for an exchange tournament among the three teams. Astoria women players are requested to be at the clubhouse promptly to check on their pairings, according to Mrs. Clayton Morse, team captain.

Junior Golf Tourney Held

Astoria Golf and Country club junior diveteers climaxed their first series of lessons last week with their first tournament and came up with a tie for top honors in the Fingerling division and lone honor winners in the boys' and girls' division.

Linda Fowler and Jane Wright battled their way to the finals in the Fingerling division. Their efforts were a standoff, however, and they tied for the title of top golfing Fingerlings.

Jon Lund paced all competition in the boys' division and came up with the title. In the girls' division, Shirley Duncan won top honors.

Junior golfers will meet for a short session Friday at 10 a. m. and golf balls will be awarded the winners of this recent tournament. The meet will be followed by a day's play on the course.

Golfers Friday will be shooting for handicaps in the upcoming final tourney of the year which is set for August. All juniors were urged to attend Friday by course officials.

Astoria Golfers Beat Oswego

Astoria's 30-man golf team beat Oswego 54-36 on the Astoria Country club course Sunday, evening things up for a previous Oswego win on the Oswego course.

Three-point winners for Astoria included Ed Neri, Bill Lang and Dr. V. E. Fowler. Hans Kauffman, John McLoughlin, Capt. Hugh Brown, Francis Clifford, Al Thompson and Len Kauffman.

Oswego three-point winners were Jim Otis, Gordon Wilson and Don Ragen.

Jack Springgay, Astoria, had low gross of 71. Mike Jerulli, Oswego, had 75, while Dr. Fowler, Roy Wiggins of Oswego, Bill Palmberg of Astoria and Ragen had a 76 each.

McLoughlin and Bob Slocum, Oswego, won prizes for long drives on two holes, while Springgay and Clifford won prizes for being closest to the pin on two holes.

Originally, a boulevard meant a cleared space provided for mounting artillery, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Golfers Play Hidden Hole At Astoria

Junior golfers played a hidden hole match at the Astoria country club Friday, July 16. P. K. Hoffman was low man in the fingerling division. Stuart Holmes triumphed in the boys' division, and Patty Lucas was queen of the girls' division.

The club reported yesterday that the Juniors will play again on this coming Monday, July 19, instead of their regular time as the Oregon Coast tourney men will be out on the course.

After the forementioned match there will be no more play until September 6 it was reported.

Astoria Women To Start Climb Up Golf Ladder

A handicap golf ladder contest, under the direction of Mrs. Harry Clow, is scheduled to start June 1 for women of the Astoria Golf and Country club.

Players who wish to enter must qualify during the week of June 1-8. Thereafter they will attempt to climb the ladder by challenging players above them.

The contest will continue through the golf season, with prizes being awarded players who occupy the top rungs of the last play in November. Handicaps will be used at all matches.

Mrs. Frank Gillard and Mrs. Sherman Lovell are co-chairmen for June golf activities. They ask that players be at the clubhouse at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday for draw day play. Pairings will be announced in Monday's Astorian and will be posted on the bulletin board at the clubhouse.

WOMEN GOLFERS QUALIFY FOR NINE-HOLE TOURNAMENT

Beginning women golfers are qualifying for a nine-hole tournament at the Astoria Golf and Country club, which will begin next Tuesday. Those who did not qualify this week may do so any day this week and post their scores at the clubhouse. Ethel Winters won low score on a blind hole last week, and this week, Jean Mogenson was low.

Medal Taken By Palmrose

ASTORIA GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB, Astoria (Special)—Dr. E. G. Palmrose, playing on his home course, dominated the opening day of the 44th annual Oregon Coast championships here Sunday as he fired a two-under-par 70 to take the 40 to 50 men's medal, while Mrs. Richard Grubbs of Rose City turned in a 78 to lead in the women's qualifying.

Dr. Palmrose had rounds of 37 and 33 against Astoria's par of 36-36—7. R. J. Nichols, also of Astoria finished second with nines of 37 and 37 for a 74 total. Eddie Rapp, Royal Oaks, came in with a 75 to take third. Ken Fields, defending champion from Yakima, elected to take his second seed and did not score his practice round.

Palmrose Starts With Bogey

Mrs. Lloyd Burgess, Astoria, was second to Mrs. Grubbs with a 79. Mrs. Burgess shot nines of 41 and 38. Posting 83s were Mrs. Jens Lerback, Astoria, Mrs. Si Sylvester, Eastmoreland; Mrs. Harry Stepp, Riverside, and Carol Jo Kebler, Sutherlin. Mrs. Richard Borst, Portland Golf club, defending titlist, posted a practice round of 78.

Dr. Palmrose started his round with a bogey on the first hole when he missed a seemingly easy putt, but he played regular figures on the next four.

At the sixth hole he cupped a five-foot putt for his first of seven birdies. On the seventh green he missed a short putt and bogeyed the eighth.

His 12-footer at number nine for another bird set him one over par at the turn. Dr. Palmrose had one more bogey on the tenth and then his game really began to sparkle. He dropped a ten-footer on the 540-yard 11th, and placed his chip shot to within four inches on the 12th for his fourth bird. A bad chip shot on the 13th resulted in a five and put him all even.

Palmrose holed eight and six-footers on the next two and finished his round with another bird on the last hole.

Mrs. Grubbs highlighted her round when she placed her second shot on the green on the 424-yard fifth hole and dropped her putt for an eagle three. On the sixth hole she placed her ball in the sand and strap and had a two-over-par six. On number eight, 267 yards for women, she was near the green with her drive, chipped up and put her third strike down. Rosemary's next bird was on the 14th, where after falling short on the second shot, she chipped and dropped a three-footer. Her nines were 40 and 38.

Oregon Coast Golf Tournament Opens July 25 on Astoria Course

By GEORGE BERTZ
Journal Sports Editor

Names of more than 100 golfers—most of them from out-of-state—are on file for the annual Oregon Coast golf championships at the Astoria Golf and Country club course. The eight day meet begins Sunday, July 25, Edward Thompson, tournament chairman, reported Saturday.

This event, which had its beginning back in 1910, is the second oldest tournament in golf's history in the state and bids fare to attract more than 200 club swingers again this year.

ALL OF LAST year's championship winners—Ellsworth Jones, men under 40; Ken Fields, Yakima, men over 40; Dr. Millard S. Rosenblatt, senior, and Mrs. R. I. Borst, women—are expected to be on hand to defend their titles.

Marty Leptich, Riverside club senior, who reached the semi-finals of the Pacific Northwest amateur at Victoria, B. C., plans to enter the competition this year and a number of other members of the Oregon Senior Golf association are expected to be on hand.

The schedule of play:

July 25—18-hole qualifying rounds for women and men over 40.
July 26—18-hole qualifying rounds for men under 40 and women under 40.
July 27—18-hole qualifying rounds for women over 40 and men under 40.
July 28—18-hole qualifying rounds for men over 40 and women under 40.
July 29—18-hole qualifying rounds for all men's divisions.
July 30—Qualifying rounds for all women's divisions.
August 1—Finals for all divisions.
There will be consolation flights in all classes.

Thompson Takes Senior Medal in Coast Tourney

Ed W. Thompson of Astoria became the second Clatsop county medalist in the Oregon Coast Golf tournament at Astoria Country club course Monday.

Thompson went around his familiar home course in 74 strokes to lead the field in the division for men over 50 years old.

Dr. E. G. Palmrose had become the first Astorian to win medal honors Sunday when he was low qualifier for the men—40-to-50 division.

Clatsop county was represented abundantly in the tournament as qualifying rounds ended Monday and match play got under way Tuesday in the men's 40-to-50 division and the women's division.

In the 40-50 division, Medalist Palmrose, unattached, faced Ed Kudella, Columbia-Edgewater, in today's first-round matches in the championship flight.

Other matches in the 40-50 division today involving Clatsop county golfers included:

Championship flight—Jim Crimmins, Astoria, vs. Ray Davis, Astoria; Barney Lucas, Astoria, vs. Herb Pierce, Yakima; Bob Anderson, Astoria, vs. Fred Wheatley, Seaside; Harvey Banson, Astoria, vs. George Will, unattached; Tommy Williams, Astoria, vs. John Gunst, Broadmoor; R. G. Nichols, Astoria, vs. Bob Clark, Columbia-Edgewater; E. G. Palmrose, unattached, vs. Ed Kudella, Columbia-Edgewater.

Second flight—Harold Wright, Astoria, vs. Vern Zutz, Royal Oaks; Ed Niemi, Astoria, vs. Art O'Toole, Portland; Tom Wells, Astoria, vs. Phil Small, Corvallis; Max Neff, Astoria, vs. Ralph Erdman, Riverside.

Fourth flight—Charles Collins, Astoria, vs. Ed Cheney, unattached.

Mrs. Lloyd Burgess, ace Astoria woman golfer, met Mrs. C. E. Leman, Glendale, in a first-round match today. Mrs. Burgess was the only Clatsop golfer to attain the championship flight.

Other matches today involving Clatsop women included:

Second flight—Mrs. Louise Otten, Astoria, vs. Mrs. S. V. Wolfe, Portland; Dorothy Moore, Astoria, vs. Mrs. H. A. Schmitt, Portland; Mrs. Glen Cate, Astoria, vs. Mrs. Ralph Lomax, Portland; Mrs. J. D. Lawson, Astoria, vs. Mrs. T. R. Williams, Astoria.

Fourth flight—Mrs. Mildred Nyquist, Astoria, vs. Mary Jean McGregor, Astoria; Mrs. Frank Maize, Astoria, vs. Mrs. Jerry Cooney, Seattle.

In Monday's qualifying play for the men under 40 division, Elwyn Bowyer of Portland was medalist with a 70.

Stan Prouty, Warrenton, was the lowest Clatsop qualifier, firing a 75. Other local qualifiers included:

Frank Maize, 79; George Abrahamsen, 84; John Rippet, 74; Dr. Blair Henningsgaard, 75; Charles Shea, 80; Elmer Hannegan, 76; Carl Burtill, 78; John McLoughlin, 83; Bob Grant, 96; Leo Kelt, 80; Ralph Dichter, 74; Bill Stanley, 76; Al Marchand, 89.

Marchand did a remarkable job in coming up with as low a score as 89. He had a 14 on No. 9 hole to contend with.

In addition to Medalist Ed Thompson, Clatsop qualifiers in men-over-50 division were Hap Magnuson 85, R. E. Fawcett 82, Frank Berg 78, Arne Juola 90, Bill Langhardt 90 and Dr. Rex Baldwin 90.

Edward Thompson, Astoria, tournament chairman, has done a great deal of work organizing and directing the matches. Committees had to be appointed and duties assigned, all of which Thompson took on his own shoulders.

The qualifying play has been done with unswerving and the matches will be swiftness with each golfer shooting for himself.

Ed Thompson, Astoria, takes time off from his duties as tourney chairman to get in a little practice of his own at the Astoria golf and country club. He had a 74 to win medalist honors in the over 50 division.

Elwyn Bowyer from Royal Oaks near Vancouver drives off the first tee for his qualifying round, finishing with a 70 to become medalist in the forthcoming Oregon coast conference at the Astoria golf and country club.

Mrs. R. L. Borst, defending champion from last year's Oregon Coast Golf conference, takes a few practice putts on the 18th hole at the Astoria golf club. The 1953 woman's champion has high hopes for this year's match.

Palmrose Victor In Coast Match

BY DALE JOHNSON

Sports Writer, The Oregonian

ASTORIA GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB, Astoria (Special)—Spectacular golf by Dr. E. G. Palmrose and Carole Jo Kabler, and defeat of senior medalist Ed Thompson featured the opening round of match play here Tuesday in the 44th annual Oregon Coast golf championships.

Astoria's Dr. Palmrose, medalist and favorite in the division for men 40 to 50 years of age, whipped

Ed Kudella of Columbia-Edgewater Country club, 6 and 3, and finished out his round for a 41-67, five under par. Dr. Palmrose, one of the longest hitters in the game, held out all his putts excepting a three-foot par putt at the first hole. He had two birdies on the front nine and one bird and an eagle on the back nine.

All other leading 40-50 contenders joined Dr. Palmrose and defending champion Ken Fields of Yakima in the winners' circle. Fields downed R. L. Borst of Portland Golf club, 4 and 2, shooting a 75.

Other Ex-Champs Win

Ray Isaacs of Columbia-Edgewater, once runner-up for the crown, moved ahead with a 3-and-2 verdict over Henry Dehen of Eastmoreland. Isaacs and Dr. Palmrose will tangle Thursday in a feature second-round clash. Ex-champion Lou Rose ousted Del Chance of Portland Golf club, 3 and 2, and will meet Don MacPike of Eastmoreland. MacPike birdied the 20th hole with a 20-foot putt to turn back Folger Johnson Jr., of the home course.

Two other ex-champions, R. J. Nichols and Barney Lucas, both of Astoria, moved along. Nichols stopped Bob Clark of Columbia-Edgewater, 5 and 4, and Lucas came from behind on the back nine to defeat Herb Pierce of Yakima, 3 and 2. State Representative Bob Jensen of Rose City who, like Dr. Palmrose, is playing in this division for the first time, eliminated Bill Martin of Portland and 3. Charles Walker of Astoria surprised with a 3-and-2 win over Eddie Hagg one of the low qualifiers from Royal Oaks Country club in Vancouver, Wash.

Thompson, who had a 74 in Monday's qualifier, shot a 70 Tuesday, but it wasn't good enough and he dropped a 1-up decision to W. H. Cravatt, a deceptively capable veteran from Columbia-Edgewater.

Thompson was 3-up after six holes, but Cravatt took the seventh and eighth holes and birdied the ninth to get even, then went one up with a par five at the 12th. Thompson birdied 16 to draw even, but Cravatt pulled it out with a winning par four at the 18th when Thompson chipped eight feet past the hole and missed the putt.

Dr. Millard Rosenblatt, senior champion the past two years and the leading choice again this time, had to come from behind to bump George Farmer of Top O'Scott Golf club, 4 and 3. Dr. Rosenblatt, two down after eight holes, birdied the 9th, 12th and 15th and won going away.

Wilhelm Easy Victory

Another senior victor was Rudie Wilhelm, Portland Golf club's great of days gone by. Wilhelm, who still can play better than well, walloped Chester Girt of Rainier, 6 and 5, and finished out his round for a 73. Rudie shot the back nine one under in 35.

Miss Kabler, the tiny Sutherlin lass who only last week won the Portland City crown, shot four birdies, four bogeys and one par for a 37 on the front nine and went on to an easy 8-and-6 triumph over Lillian Schassen of The Dalles. Miss Kabler was even-par for the day.

All other top women's favorites came through on schedule. Mrs. R. L. Borst, the defending champion, finished only one over par in thumping Mrs. Jack Glaser of Columbia-Edgewater, 6 and 4. Mrs. Borst and Miss Kabler tangle in Wednesday's top battle.

Mrs. Richard Grubbs, medalist from Rose City, defeated Mrs. J. M. Odell, The Dalles, 5 and 4; Mrs. Harry Stepp of Riverside Golf and Country club blasted Mrs. Virgil Crum of Columbia-Edgewater, 8 and 6, and Mrs. Lloyd Burgess, ex-Coast queen from the home course, defeated Mrs. C. E. Leman of Seattle, 6 and 4.

Only men under 40 and women play Wednesday with the other two divisions swinging back into action Thursday.

Palmrose Upset In Coast Match

BY DALE JOHNSON
Sports Writer, The Oregonian

ASTORIA GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB, Astoria (Special)—"Drive for show and putt for dough" is an adage almost as old as golf. Ray Lees proved it once more here Thursday as he shaded Dr. F. G. Palmrose, 1 up, in the biggest upset of the 44th annual Oregon Coast championships.

Dr. Palmrose, mighty Astorian who can consistently drive almost 300 yards, boomed his tee shots more than 400 yards past those of Lees, but the little Columbia Ridgewater Country Club member, who won this tournament in 1941 and was runner-up in 1954, outperformed him around the greens to gain the quarter finals in the division for men 40 to 50.

Dr. Palmrose was the only favorite to taste defeat. Billy Lees, Portland city champion from Eastmoreland and a leading choice in the bracket of men under 40, lost a 1-up decision to Johnny Wells of Puyallup Golf and Country club. Wells, ex-Texas who formerly starred as a public links player, tied from a three-hole deficit to win the seventh hole with a tee shot, nab the ninth and tenth with birdies to draw even and nip his touted foe when Lees missed an eight-foot par putt on the 18th green. Wells got down a four-footer for his four and the match.

Other favorites in the young men division came through with triumphs. Medalist Edwin Bowyer from Royal Oaks Country club nipped Virgil Mitchell of Clatsop, 1 up, who missed the 18th. Captain bargained F. R. Jones of Clatsop shot one under-par 29 to dispose of Dr. Blair Henningson of the home course, 4 and 1.

3 and Ralph Dichter, 1972 Coast king from Astoria, equalized regulation figures for a 6-and-5 verdict over Lou Tobin of Tualatin Country club.

Stearns, Rippet Win

Dick Stearns, University of Portland, eliminated Herman Roy Atkins of Colwood, 1 up, when Atkins bogeyed the pesky 18th. John Rippet, Seaside southpaw, one-putted the last four greens in a rally that brought him a 1-up win over Jerry Vines of Tualatin. Dusty Woods of Salem bumped Stan Greig of Astoria, 4 and 2, and Bob Gulle of Rose City required only 16 putts in the 18 holes he needed for a 6-and-5 decision over Bill Parker, also of Rose City.

Paul's round of eight will end against Wells, Stearns against Dichter Jones against Rippet and Woods against Gulle.

Dr. Palmrose led Isaacs by two holes at the fifth tee, but the Astorian's putter began misbehaving and Ray got even with winning pars at the fifth and sixth. Back bounced Dr. Palmrose to nab the long ninth with a birdie four, but Isaacs deuced the short tenth with a four-foot putt.

The Portlander again went 2 up by snaring the 13th with a par four and the 273-yard 15th with a birdie three on a 15-foot-when Dr. Palmrose drove the apron but took four to get down. Isaacs topped his tee shot at the 16th and lost it to a par four, but he held on for halves at the 17th and 18th in pars.

Ray Hooks Tee Shot

Ray hooked his tee shot at the 18th and left his second 10 yards short of the carpet, but he chipped within a few inches of the cup. When Dr. Palmrose failed to sink a 20-foot birdie putt, he conceded defeat.

In other 4-and-5 title scraps, Ed Rose, Eastmoreland beat MacPike, Eastmoreland 3 and 2; R. J. Nichols, Astoria, and John Gust, Portland,

2 and 1; Harvey Benson, a Portlander playing out of the Astoria club, bested Port James Jones, City, 1 up; Fred McCauley, Portland Golf club, turned back Lon Anderson, Astoria, 1 up; Barney Jackson, Astoria, topped Charles Wagon, Eastmoreland, 2 and 1; Bob Patton, Waveslev Country club, ousted Ray Davis, Astoria, 3 and 1.

Friday, Isaacs will play Rose Nichols will meet Benson, Lee will play Patton and McCauley will play Bill Prentiss of Forest Hills. Prentiss had advanced Wednesday by tripping Ken Fields, 1953 champion from Yakima.

Dr. Rosenblatt Edges Tomlinson

Senior favorites came through, but Dr. Millard Rosenblatt, defending champion from Tualatin, had to par the 18th now to 190 to out Eastmoreland's Jack Tomlinson. Dr. Rosenblatt, 1 down after 17 holes, chipped in from 11 feet for a 10th green at the 17th, gained a 1-up lead, and in bogey five on the 18th, won at the 19th.

Joining the Tualatin semifinals were Rudy Wilhelm, Portland Golf club; Ted Fleskes, Oswego, and Ralph Grabler, Riversdale.

Wilhelm shot nine straight pars going out and went down a 4-and-3 victory over 1. Bennett of Oswego, 1 down, knocked out Bill Cravatt of Columbia-Edgewater, 2 and 1, and Grabler thumped F. O. Felt, 6 and 5.

In Friday's semifinals, Fleskes will play Wilhelm and Grabler will meet Dr. Rosenblatt.

Champs Lose Golf Matches In Coast Play

BY DALE JOHNSON

Sports Writer, The Oregonian

ASTORIA GOLF CLUB, Astoria (Special)—Two of the four defending champions went down to defeat in the Oregon coast championships here Wednesday as Carole Jo Kabler thumped Mrs. R. L. Borst 5 and 4, and Bill Prentiss knocked over Ken Fields, 2 and 1.

Miss Kabler, Sutherlin's sensational 16-year-old, shot the front nine in two-over par 39 and equalled regulation figures on the back nine. This proved too much for Mrs. Borst, Portland Golf club star, who missed two crucial putts of less than three feet.

The men 40 to 50 were not scheduled to play Wednesday, but Fields and Prentiss played their second-round bout so Fields could return to Yakima on business. The 1953 champion won't have to return, for Prentiss, who plays at Forest Hills, grabbed a two-hole turn lead and never relaxed the pressure.

Women and seniors will swing back into action Sunday. Carole Jo Kabler will play Mrs. Lloyd Burgess over the 36-hole route for the feminine title. Dr. Mil-lard Rosenblatt, only defending champion left in the tourney, will tackle Ted Fleskes at 18 holes for the over-50 hardware.

Shea, Twiss Stage Battle

Although they were compet-ing in the under-40 first flight semi-finals and not for a major title, 18-year-old Charles Shea of Gearhart and Dick Twiss of The Dalles stole much of the day's thunder. Shea shot a 36-31-67 and had to have it for a 1-up nod as Twiss fired a 35-33-68. They had a best ball of 62, a 28 on the back nine and a total of 11 birdies.

Shea's 67 and his back-nine 31 both equalled competitive course records, although as a match play round, it cannot count.

The noncompetitive mark is 65. Shea's five birdies, all on the back nine, included a 12-foot chip at the 11th hole. He left a 10-foot birdie tap hanging on the lip at the short 10th hole.

Woods Grabs Lead

Woods putted well on the front nine to shoot a two-under-par 34 and amass a 3-up lead. He won the fourth hole with a par three, sank a five-foot birdie putt at the sixth, exploded from a trap and ran down a 10-footer for a half in par fours at the eighth and dropped a 25-footer for a birdie four at the ninth after Jones had chipped his third shot stiff.

Dusty went four holes ahead with a winning par five at the 11th, but his putting touch de-serted him and he missed taps of less than three feet at the 13th, 14th and 15th holes to lose all three. At the 16th, Woods' second found a trap but he recovered to within a foot of the cup. Jones, on in two, three-putted, his par attempt stopping an inch from the hole. Through a misunderstanding, Woods picked up his ball marker and Jones claimed the hole to square the match.

Both parred the 184-yard 17th, Woods getting down a six-footer for his three. Both were short of the green at the 18th in two. Woods chipped less than three feet from the cup, while Jones' chip skidded 12 feet past. The Colwood veteran's par attempt stopped two inches short and Woods ran down his shortie for victory.

Dichter Bullds Lead

Dichter led Wells all the way and never was in danger.

He birdied the second, 12th and 15th holes and led by three holes at the turn. Ralph's longest putts were a pair of par putts for halves—a 20-~~foot~~ at the ninth after he had been trapped twice and a 25-footer at the 13th.

Rose and Nichols each shot one-over-par 73s in a match that was as tight as a Scots-man's purse. Rose led by two holes after firing a birdie three at the sixth, but Nick chipped in from 20 feet for a birdie at the eighth and turned only 1 down.

Rose Regains Lead

Nichols won the 10th with a par ~~three~~ but Rose downed a 12-foot birdie tap at the par-five 19th to regain his slim lead. They remained tied through the 17th but Rose bogeyed the 18th to send the scrap into over-time. At the 19th, Rose pulled his tee shot but fired a 150-~~yard~~ shot from under a tree to the apron.

Nichols' second team an inch he fell 10 yards short of the green, and his chip curled about nine feet below the cup. Rose chipped less than two feet from the cup, and when Nichols' put-try stopped on the lip the East-morland ace boled his putt to end the long tussle.

Both Prentiss and Lucas shot the front nine in 17 and turned all even. Lucas birdied the 11th and 12th with a par and a birdie to go 2 up.

Prentiss got one of these back with a winning par four at the 14th, but Lucas birdied the 15th to go 2 up once more. Then the roof caved in on Barney. He drove into trouble at the 16th and had to concede the hole then bogeyed the short 17th as Prentiss three-putted for his par three and came even. Both recovered the 18th, but Prentiss scored two fine shots to within 17 feet of the pin at the 19th and two-putted for his winning par when Lucas, short of the green in two, chipped 10 feet from home and missed the putt.

Dichter, Nichols Gain Golf Final

RALPH DICHTER

In round-of-four

BY DALE JOHNSON
Sports Writer, The Oregonian

ASTORIA GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB, Astoria (Special)—Ralph Dichter and R. J. Nichols fired four-under-par golf on the back nine to set the scoring pace as top favorites rolled to triumphs here Friday in the 44th annual Oregon Coast Golf championships.

Dichter, 1952 king and leading choice in the division for men under 40, had to have his scuzzing nine to get past Dick Stearns, stocky University of Portland ace, 1 up. Big Ralph went out three over par in 39 and made the turn 2 down. The powerful Astorian came roaring back with birdies at the 11th, 12th, 15th and 17th holes to take the 18th tee 1 up. The match ended when Dichter got down a six-foot par putt on the final green. Dichter shot a 39-52 71, Stearns a 37-35-72.

Joining Dichter in Saturday's semifinals were Johnny Wells of Riverside Golf and Country club, defending champion E. R. Jones of Colwood and Dusty Woods of Salem.

Medalist Eliminated

Wells eliminated medalist Elwin Bowyer of Royal Oaks Country club, 2 and 1. Johnny lost two of the first three holes but grabbed the fourth with a par three and the sixth with a birdie three to get even. He then nabbed the 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th with three pars and a birdie and weathered a late rally by Bowyer.

Jones knocked two strokes from par in 13 holes and ousted John Rippet, Easide southpaw, 6 and 5. Woods, 2 down to Bob Girtle of Rose City after 11 holes, eagled the 461-yard 12th hole with a 20-foot putt and snared the 13th, 15th and 17th with pars for a 2-and-1 win. Sprayed tee shots contributed heavily to Girtle's defeat.

Saturday's round of four will send Wells against Dichter and Jones against Woods, with Dichter concluded on Page 3, Column 1

LOU ROSE
Advances to finals

Bill Prentiss, Rose Triumph

BY DALE JOHNSON
Sports Writer, The Oregonian

ASTORIA GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB, Astoria (Special)—Ralph Dichter, Justin "Dusty" Woods, Lou Rose and Bill Prentiss notched semifinal victories here Saturday in the 44th annual Oregon Coast Golf championships.

In the division for men under 40, Dichter, top favorite from the home course, defeated Johnny Wells of Riverside Golf and Country club, 4 and 3, with a one-under-par performance. Woods, a Salem player, upset E. R. Jones, defending champion from Colwood, 1 up.

Both Prentiss and Rose had to go 19 holes for triumphs in the bracket for men 40 to 50. Rose, 1940 coast champion from Eastmoreland, parred the 19th and nipped R. J. Nichols of the host club. Prentiss, who plays at Forest Hills, came from behind to nose out Barney Lucas of Astoria, also with a par at the first extra hole.

36-Hole Bouts Slated

The 29-year-old Dichter and the 39-year-old Woods will play 36 holes Sunday for the crown. It will be Dichter's third trip to the crown round and Woods' first. Dichter lost in 42 holes to Bob Duden in 1949, then took the 1952 diadem with Jones the runner-up. Prentiss, 42, and Rose, 44, also will play 36 holes.

Rose, Fleskes Take Crowns In Golf Finals

BY DALE JOHNSON

Sports Writer, The Oregonian

ASTORIA GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB (Special)—Justin "Dusty" Woods, short-game-marvel from McMinnville, holed a back-to-the wall chip shot from 50 feet at the 35th green here Sunday to defeat Ralph Dichter of Astoria, 2 and 1, for the under-40 crown in the 44th annual Oregon coast golf championships.

The marvelous chip, the second one the Willamette valley veteran dropped in the afternoon session, wrapped up Woods' first major tournament triumph; and it slammed the door on Dichter, the face of the 1952, 1952 champion and local favorite, who had birdied the previous hole and had pumped his iron shot at the 184-yard 35th to within seven feet of the cup.

Woods, with the pressure mounting, had pulled his tee shot into the edge of a grass bunker to the left of the green. With the gallery of about 200 expecting Dichter to even the score, Woods pulled his miracle shot out of the hat, and the crowd was his when Dichter missed his putt.

The 26-year-old Woods was joined in the winners' circle by Mrs. Lloyd Burgess, Lou Rose and Ted Fleskes.

Mrs. Burgess, four-time coast runner-up from the home course, surprised many with sparkling play.

golf and a 7-and-6 triumph over Carole Jo Kabler, sensational Sutherlin 16-year-old. Rose, Eastmoreland ace, returned to the coast throne after a 14-year exile with a 1-up decision over Bill Prentiss of Forest Hills in the division for men 40 to 50. Fleskes, Oswego Lake Country club senior, ended Dr. Millard Rosenblatt's two-year reign as coast senior champion with a come-from-behind, 2-up victory over the Tualatin Country club star.

Woods Leads Throughout

Woods never was down in his long struggle against the powerful Dichter. Playing in overcast, windless and almost perfect golfing weather, the lean, sun-tanned Dusty took a 3-up lead in the morning 18 with a one-over par 73. Dichter, bothcided by erring two shots, had to settle for a 76. Woods won two holes on the front nine, the sixth and the ninth, and the other seven were halved. Still 2 up after 17 holes, Dusty took the 18th with a par four when Dichter's second sailed over the green.

They divided wins in pars at the 19th and 20th holes, and Dichter missed a three-foot birdie putt that would have won the 22nd hole, had it dropped. At the 24th, Woods chipped in from 30 yards for a birdie three, but Dichter knocked in a 20-foot putt right on top of Dusty's chip for his three. Dichter bounded back to sink a 25-foot birdie putt at the 401-yard 25th, and they turned the nine with Woods 2 up.

Dichter blasted beautifully from a trap and tapped in a seven-footer for a half in par threes at the 28th, but he hit two bad chip shots at the 29th and 30th to halt probable wins. Ralph cut the margin to one hole at the 31st with a winning par four when Woods was short of the green, but the Astorian bogeyed the 32nd by missing a tricky three-foot putt after chipping brilliantly from above the green and went 2 down once more.

Pressure Mounts on Woods

Both birdied the 267-yard 33rd with threes, and at the 357-yard 34th, Dichter uncorked a 400-yard drive and plunked his approach less than three feet from the cup. When he got that tap down for his bird, the pressure mounted on Woods, and when Ralph spanked his aforementioned iron shot almost to the pin at the 35th, the McMinnville ace was in deep trouble. He came roaring out with that spectacular deuce, however, and the match ended before spectators could catch their breaths.

Dichter was two under in the afternoon, Woods one under.

Mrs. Burgess shot the morning 18 in 75, only one over women's par, to grab a 3-up lead over her youthful foe at lunchtime. The Astoria woman took the first three holes with a bogey, a birdie and a par, and little Carole Jo never could catch up. The Sutherlin lass wound up the morning session with a 79 and played Mrs. Burgess even from the fourth hole on, but she could gain no ground.

Still 3 up after 23 holes, Mrs. Burgess captured the 24th, 25th and 26th holes with a par, a bogey and a birdie, and made the 27-hole turn ahead by six holes. She went 7 up with a winning par three at the 28th when Carole Jo missed a four-foot putt, and they exchanged wins on the next two holes to wind up the scrap.

Rose shot a 73 in the morning to move three holes ahead of Prentiss, who carded a 76. Lou fired a one-over 37 going in the afternoon and increased his margin to four holes when Prentiss drove into a water hazard at the 27th. They halved the next three holes, both sinking 12-foot birdie putts at the par-ave 30th, then Prentiss started a withering rally that almost brought him victory.

Prentiss Sinks Birdies

Prentiss sank birdie putts of 16, 14 and 12 feet for wins at the 31st, 34th and 35th holes to take the 36th tee only 1 down. Rose closed the door, however, by getting down a 10-foot putt at the 36th for a half in par four.

Rose shot a 74 in the afternoon while Prentiss who played the back nine under 34, had a 72.

Dr. Rosenblatt shot the front nine in 37 to take a 2-up lead on Fleskes, then nabbed the 10th hole with a par three to go 3 up. With doom staring him in the face, Fleskes came on to one-putt the next five greens in three pars and two birdies. Dr. Rosenblatt drew even with a winning par four at the 14th, but Dr. Rosenblatt birdied the 15th to regain the lead. Fleskes squared accounts again at the 16th when Dr. Rosenblatt trapped his second and bogeyed. When the Tualatin senior missed the 17th and 18th greens for bogeys, Fleskes slipped in par putts to win both and the match.

Fleskes toured the back nine in 35 for a 74. Dr. Rosenblatt had a 78 for a 76.

Country Club Sets Fashion Show Lunch

A fashion show-luncheon, a la Meier and Frank and Frederick and Nelson, will be one of the first all events on the calendar at the Astoria Golf and Country club Wednesday.

The luncheon tables will be set up in the club lounge, and during the lunch, models will parade among the tables, displaying new fashions for fall and winter, with a sprinkling of southern resort styles.

The idea, taken from fashion-luncheons held in the large city department stores, will shorten the time of showing, as the women have their lunch, and leave the afternoon free for cards. Mrs. Jack Wittliff and Mrs. E. C. Madison, chairmen, decided.

Mrs. Ed Niemi and Mrs. A. J. Kerbel are in charge of the card games and awards.

The luncheon starts promptly at 12:30 p. m. and reservations are required, from the public and from members of the club.

Fall "Arrives" With Fashions At Golf Club

Fall was "officially" ushered in for the women who flocked to the Astoria Golf and Country club Wednesday for the first autumn show and bridge luncheon.

Members of the club, who modeled the new fall woolens, spotlighting Dior blue and the very new ginger shades were the Mesdames E. T. Edison, Fred Sandoz, Joseph Dyer, Wendell Wyatt, John McGowan and Floyd Foster.

In the manner of the large city department store fashion luncheons, the models displayed coats, suits, sport wear and cocktail frocks from the Astoria Apparel, wending their way among the tables of lunching women, to the commensating of Mrs. E. C. Madsen.

Novel and striking rain wear in colorful ensembles were also shown from the Astoria Apparel, as were a variety of newly arrived hats from the Klara-Alma shop, modelled by Mrs. Alston Legg and Mrs. Richard Paulson.

Models entered through a life-sized picture frame, which motif was repeated in a large shadow box framing an arrangement of fall flowers over the fireplace.

Mrs. Clayton Morse, Mrs. Gene Lowe and Mrs. Wilbur Hisner were winners among those who stayed for bridge after the fried chicken luncheon, and a special prize went to Mrs. J. H. Butler.

Those in charge of the event were Mrs. Ed Niemi and Mrs. A. J. Korbel, luncheon and cards, and Mrs. Jack Wittliff and Mrs. E. C. Madsen, fashion show.

Reservations Due

Reservations for the fashion show luncheon to be held at the Astoria Golf and Country club Wednesday must be in Tuesday, according to Mrs. Jack Wittliff and Mrs. E. C. Madsen, co-chairmen.

The models, who will display clothes from the Astoria Apparel shop during the luncheon hour, will be the Mesdames Joseph Dyer, Wendell Wyatt, Floyd Foster, John McGowan and Fred Sandoz. Mrs. Richard Paulson and Mrs. Alston Legg will display hats from the Clara-Alma shop.

Annual Golf Championship Has First Round Favorites

Favorites came through in good fashion in first round matches in the Astoria Country club's annual championship tournament.

In the championship flight Dr. Ed Palmrose beat Bob Fawcett Jr. 6 and 5, Bob Anderson topped Harry Swanson 1 up, Bill Palmberg downed F. S. Clifford 5 up, Dr. V. Fowler beat Max Crawford 4 and 3, Harold Gramson edged Walt Oden 2 up, F. Johnson Jr. beat Bob Thrall and Bill Langhardt beat Bob Fawcett 1 up.

Ralph Dichter, defending champion and Ed Thompson have yet to play their first round match.

Second round pairings are

Fowler vs. Dichter-Thompson; winner; Fawcett vs. Gramson, Palmrose vs. Anderson, Palmberg vs. Johnson.

First Flight Pairings

First flight pairings: Crawford vs. Dichter-Thompson loser; Langhardt vs. Oden, Fawcett vs. Swanson and Clifford vs. Thrall.

In the second flight Hap Magnuson beat Leo Kelt 2 and 1, Bill Stanley topped Roger Hopkins Jr. 4 and 3, Dr. Frank Rafferty beat Fred Sandoz 1 up, Arne Juola beat Harold Wright 2 up, Frank Maize beat Tom Sandoz, and George Abrahamson downed Dr. B. Henningsgaard 1 up.

T. R. Williams vs. Doug Hager and Max Neff vs. John Kennedy are unplayed.

In the fourth flight Graham Barbey topped Ed Holmes, John McLoughlin beat Bob Grant 3 and 2, Bob Hart downed Bob Mackenzie, Mort Hogile beat W. Siegmund 4 and 3, George Ostrom beat Ford Knutsen 3 up, Herb Palmberg won from John McGowan 2 up, Dave Thorsnes beat Neil Morfitt and Dr. Ade Kerbel beat Roger Hopkins Sr. 1 up on the 20th hole.

In the sixth flight L. R. Widney beat Dr. T. Rex Baldwin 2 and 1, S. E. Anderson downed Dan Cary 8 and 3, Paul Moore beat H. Gasmann on the 20th hole, O. A. Nikula beat W. J. Camblin 1 up.

Palmroe Cops Golf Title; Beats Dichter

Dr. E. G. Palmrose captured the Astoria Country club golf championship with a spectacular 2 and 1 win over Ralph Dichter Sunday in a 36 hole match in which both golfers played sub-par golf.

They wound up the first 18 holes all even at two-under-par 70, despite the fact Dichter was at 4 holes down after the first seven holes.

Dichter shot the next 11 holes five under par to get back even with Dr. Palmrose at the noon-day rest period.

In the afternoon Dichter lost two of the first four holes and could never get back even again, even by eagleing the 444-yard 14th hole.

First Nine Bothersome

The first nine holes gave Dichter trouble in the afternoon as well as in the morning. He was three over par for the first nine for the two rounds, and six under par for the second nine.

In the afternoon round Palmrose shot the back nine in three under par or 33 strokes to keep Dichter from rallying as he did in the morning back nine.

"This was excellent golf and both can be proud of themselves," was the comment of Ron Caperna, club pro.

Other Results

Other flight results: First, Bill Langhardt beat Harry Swanson 4 and 3; second, unplayed; third, unplayed; fourth, Herbert Palmberg beat Mort Hogile 1 up, 5 and 4; fifth, L. R. Widney beat Paul Moore 2 up, 7 and 6; W. J. Camblin beat Dr. Rex Baldwin 1 up.

Matches in the second, third and fourth flights will be played off tomorrow.

Astoria Golf Club Title Battle Sunday

Ralph Dichter and Dr. E. G. Palmrose, two of the longest hitters in northwest golf circles, will match drives and putts Sunday in competition for the Astoria country club championship.

Palmrose made his way to the finals this week by beating Bill Palmberg 2 and 1, while Dichter previously had nosed out Bob Fawcett Sr. in a semi-final match.

The championship match Sunday will be a 36-hole event, which is expected to provide ample excitement.

Dichter and Dr. Palmrose have met only rarely in past competition, so a big gallery is expected. No admission is charged.

Palmberg held Dr. Palmrose even on the first nine in their semi-final match, in which each had par 36. Dr. Palmrose went ahead on the 17th hole. He had a 71, one under par, for the rain-soaked match.

Dr. Palmrose has changed from an unorthodox to an orthodox putting style, which helped him win the match.

First Flight

In the first flight of the club championship tournament Bill Langhardt beat Max Crawford and Harry Swanson nosed out Bob Thrall, and will meet in the final match.

In the second flight Dr. Frank Rafferty beat Hap Magnuson while John Kennedy was nosing out Frank Maize, and Rafferty will meet Kennedy in the finals.

In the third flight it will be Roger Hopkins Jr. vs. Dr. Blair Henningsgaard in the finals, Hopkins having beat Fred Sandoz and Henningsgaard recording a 1-up victory over Max Neff.

In the fourth flight Herb Palmberg and Mort Hogile won semi-final matches, Hogile beating Graham Barbey 1 up and Palmberg beating Dr. A. J. Kerbel 3 and 1.

In the fifth flight Roger Hopkins Sr. beat Ford Knutsen 1 up while Wilson Siegmund beat Ed Holmes, and Hopkins will meet Siegmund in the finals.

In the six flight L. Widney beat Paul Moore 2 up, while Dr. Rex Baldwin is to play W. J. Camblin.

Links Ace

RALPH DICHTER
Game back in harness

OGA Tourney Opens Friday

BY DALE JOHNSON
Sports Writer, The Oregonian

ASTORIA (Special).—A field of approximately 150 linksmen will tee off at Astoria Golf and Country club Friday in the fourth annual medal play championship of the Oregon Golf association, defending champion from Medford, and Ralph Dichter of the home course ranked as co-favorites.

Dichter, always a terror on Astoria's wind-swept dunes, appears recovered from the fear-some slump that affected his play from June through August. The slugging ex-Oregon State college ace started the 1954 season in blazing fashion and racked up a victory in the OGA Championship of Champions event and a second in the Oregon and Open before his swing went bad. At the state amateur in June, he won his cost him possible victories in the state and the Oregon Coast tourney. The past few weeks big Ralph has blasted par consistently, however, and observers believe he is back in form.

Harrington will be a hard man to dethrone. The Rogue Valley Country club manager is a smooth divotter who seldom scores above par and for whom Astoria's tricky, sloping greens should be made to order. Should Harrington repeat, he will be the second man to do so. Dick Yost won the first two medal plays in 1951 and 1952.

Cudd Not to Play

Bruce Cudd, Western Amateur and Oregon Open king from Columbia-Edgewater Country club, said Saturday that he will not compete. Cudd recently began his senior year at University of Portland and said he felt he must miss the Astoria event because of studies.

Even without Cudd, Harrington and Dichter will have plenty of stiff competition. Foremost among the early entrants Saturday were Bob McReynolds, Marty Leptich, Bob Bronson and Bob McKeown of Riverside Golf and Country club; Ray Isaacs, Columbia-Edgewater Country club, and Dr. E. G. Palmrose, the Astorian whose mighty tee shots have won him fame throughout the Northwest. Bob Donnelly and Jerry Cloninger, Oregon State college's one-two punch, are expected to participate, as is Rusty Woods of McMinnville, the Oregon Coast titlist.

The entire field will play all 54 holes, 18 Friday, 18 Saturday and a closing 18 Sunday, October 3. A special senior division will include such talented stars as Leptich, the state senior champion, and Dr. Millard Rosenblatt, two-time Oregon Coast senior king.

Entries Close Wednesday

Entries close Wednesday at 5 p. m. and should be sent to the Oregon Golf association, Astoria Golf and Country club, Warren, Ore. Entry fee is $7.50, both for seniors and regular contestants. The tourney is open to members of OGA member clubs and guests. Twenty public link players have been invited to compete.

The amateur linksters will have something new to shoot at when the tourney opens. Ron Caperna, Astoria's professional, last week carded a hole-in-one on the 273-yard, par-four 15th hole. Caperna's ace, accomplished with a driver, is believed to be the longest hole-in-one ever scored in Oregon.

Caperna said Saturday that the course is in top shape, thanks to excellent weather and constant grooming.

Starting Times Announced for Medal Tourney

Par-4 and starting times for the Oregon Golf association's 54-hole medal tournament at Astoria Country club were announced Wednesday by Dr. V. E. Fowler, tournament chairman for the home club.

The tournament opens Friday morning and continues through Sunday with entrants scheduled to play 18 holes a day.

Par-4 Hole

Ron Caperna, professional of the Astoria Golf and Country club, made one of the longest aces ever recorded in the Pacific Northwest on his home course Tuesday afternoon by holing out his drive on the 273-yard 15th hole.

Caperna made his ace on the par-4 hole while playing in a foursome with Dr. L. Paul Walker, president of the Rogue Valley Country club, Medford; and Ed Thompson and Bob Fawcett Jr. of the Astoria club.

Caperna's tee shot hit on the edge of the green and trickled into the cup. Caperna, with the aid of the hole-in-one, medaled the back nine in 34 strokes, two under par.

Caperna Bags Hole In One on 15 Hole

Ron Caperna, professional at Astoria Country club, bagged a hole in one on the 273-yard, par four 15th hole of the country club course the other day, members of the club reported.

It was the first hole in one ever made off the men's tee on this hole, although Mrs. Dorothy Burgess once got an ace off the women's tee there.

Playing with Caperna were Ed Thompson and Bob Fawcett of Astoria and Dr. Paul Walker of Medford.

Dichter Loses Golf Title By One Stroke

Ralph Dichter, Astoria Country club golfing ace, came within a stroke of capturing the Oregon Golf association's 54-hole medal tournament on his home course Sunday, but lost the title to Kermit Smith, a golfing unknown from Portland, in a sudden death playoff.

Dichter and Smith wound up the three-day 54-hole regulation play tied at 219 strokes each.

Smith won on the first hole of the playoff, getting a par 4 while Dichter hooked his tee shot into the rough and had to take 5.

Palmrose Third

Dr. E. G. Palmrose, Astoria, and Bob Bronson, Portland, tied for third place in the tournament with 221 strokes each, followed by Richard Cooney, Portland, 222; Harry Millette, Medford, 223; Sidney Milligan, Eugene, 225; George Harrington, Medford, defending champion, 225; and Dusty Rhodes, McMinnville, 225. Rhodes was Oregon Coast tournament champion early this year on the Astoria course.

Weather conditions were perfect Sunday, following a stormy Saturday that added a few strokes to every golfer's game and prevented any par or sub-par rounds. Despite the fine weather Sunday, Smith and Dichter were the only golfers to shoot par.

Johnson Senior Titlist

Lloyd Johnson, Royal Oaks Country club, won the senior championship with 239, shooting the last four holes 1 under par to nose out Gale Zener, Portland, who had 240.

Harry Stepp, Portland, had low net score for the tournament, with a 244-36 for net of 208.

Clear Skies Sought as Golfers Ready

Astoria Country Club officials prayed for continued clear skies today as they made ready to entertain upwards of 100 of the northwest's top golfers in the three-day Oregon Golf association medal play tournament starting Friday on the local course.

Dr. V. E. Fowler, tournament chairman, said registration has passed 50 and will be above 100 by the time the first players tee off Friday morning.

Eighteen holes a day will be played, with cumulative scores for the three days determining the winner.

Harrington Defending

Among the principal competitors will be George Harrington, Medford, defending champion; Ralph Dichter, Astoria, one of the top challengers; Dick Stearns from University of Portland; George Cameron, Riverside, Portland; F. J. Heitkemper, Portland golf club veteran; Ron Esping, Portland.

Bob and Pat Casey, married musicians; Ruth Elliott, east Semmons, chaplain; Lillian Spaulding, installing worthy adviser; Darla Henry, past worthy adviser; (installing officers included Robinson, service; Harvey, patriotism, and Joan Helen Lerbeck, fidelity; Penny Lure, Judy Olson, immortality; mood, religion; Sandra Martz, Janet Paulsen, love; Sharon Dy-

Shelton, assistant drill leader.

Starting Time Announced for Medal Tourney

Pairings and starting times for the Oregon Golf association's 54-hole medal tournament at Astoria Country club were announced Wednesday by Dr. V. E. Fowler, tournament chairman for the local club.

Golfers Plan "Stagette", Award Prizes

The women of the Astoria Golf and Country club discussed plans at their Tuesday meeting for their annual stagette, scheduled for November 30.

Mrs. Fred Sandoz, president, led the discussion, which also included details for the dance to be held sometime during the holidays.

A Halloween theme will be used for the family night this Saturday. An orchestra will play following the dinner.

Mrs. Sandoz chose the Mesdames Harry Clow, Donovan Mitchell, Richard Hole, R. G.

Butler and Frank Maize for her nominating committee to submit a slate of officers at the December meeting when elections will be held.

Prizes for the fall handicap were awarded to Mrs. Graham Barbey, championship flight, Mrs. Blair Henningsgaard, runner-up; Mrs. Carl Nyquist, first flight, Mrs. Frank Rafferty, runner-up; Mrs. Frank Gillard, second flight, Mrs. Floyd Foster, runner-up; and Mrs. Greer Glascoe, third flight. The consolation prize went to Mrs. Mitchell for the best score in Tuesday's play among the remaining players in the tournament.

Eclectic prizes went to Mrs. Lloyd Burgess, low gross, and to Mrs. Clayton Morse, low net, for summer play.

Mrs. Guy Rea received the OWGA prize which is awarded to the golfer with the four lowest net scores on designated days.

Mrs. Neil Morfitt and Mrs. Edward Holmes were chairman for the month, provided appetizers for the meeting. Mrs. Tom Sandoz and Mrs. Allen Cellars were in charge of the tournament.

New Years Eve Is Colorful Affair At Country Club

New Year's eve at the country club was a gala affair, arranged by six wives of Columbia river bar pilots for a more than usual big crowd.

Mrs. George Erbe was chairman of the party, assisted by the Mesdames Carl Parker, Charles Reed, Elton Gillette, Hugh Brown and Edgar Quinn.

A top hat, white gloves and cane set the motif above the mantel, along with a large clock, with its hands pointing to midnight, backed by a gold glitter sign, "Happy New Year!"

All the chandelieres were draped with colored serpentine and paper hats, repeated in the decor for individual tables, where bottles of champagne and gardenia corsages were favors for the men and women guests.
